To the Person in 🔞:

- The court cannot grant a long-term restraining order unless the person in (2) has been personally given (served) a copy of your request and any temporary orders. To show that the person in (2) has been served, the person who served the forms must fill out a proof of service form, like form DV-200, Proof of Personal Service.
- For information about service, read form DV-200-INFO, What Is "Proof of Personal Service"?
- If you are unable to serve the person in 2 in time, you may ask for more time to serve the documents.
 Read form DV-115-(NFO, How to Ask for a New Hearing Date.

To the Person in 🙆:

- If you want to respond in writing, mail a copy of your completed form DV-120, Response to Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order, to the person in 1 and file it with the court. You cannot mail form DV-120 yourself. Someone age 18 or older—not you—must do it.
- To show that the person in ① has been served by mail, the person who mailed the form must fill out a proof of service form. Form DV-250, Proof of Service by Mail, may be used. File the completed form with the court before the hearing and bring a copy with you to the hearing.
- For information about responding to a restraining order and filing your answer, read form DV-120-INFO, How Can I Respond to a Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order?
- If you are unable to attend your court hearing or need more time to prepare your case, you may ask the judge to reschedule your court date. Read form DV-115-INFO, How to Ask for a New Hearing Date.
- Whether or not you respond in writing, attend the hearing if you want the judge to hear from you before making an order. At the hearing, tell the judge why you agree or disagree with the orders requested. Bring any evidence or witnesses you have. Read form DV-520-INFO, Get Ready for Your Restraining Order Court Hearing.
- · At the hearing, the judge may make restraining orders against you that could last up to five years.
- The judge may also make other orders about your children, child support, spousal support, money, and property and may order you to turn in, sell, or store any firearms (guns), firearm parts, or ammunition that you own or have.

Request for Accommodations

Assistive listening systems, computer-assisted real-time captioning, or sign language interpreter services are available if you ask at least five days before the hearing. Contact the clerk's office or go to www.courts.ca.gov/forms for Disability Accommodation Request (form MC-410). (Civil Code section 54.8.)

(Clerk will fill out this part.)

-Clerk's Certificate-

I certify that this Notice of Court Hearing is a true and correct copy of the original on file in the court.

Instructions for Law Enforcement

This order is effective when made. It is enforceable by any law enforcement agency that has received the order, is shown a copy of the order, or has verified its existence on the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS). If the law enforcement agency has not received proof of service on the restrained person, and the restrained person was not present at the court hearing, the agency shall advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then shall enforce it. Violations of this order are subject to criminal penalties.

Duties of Officer Serving This Order

The officer who serves this order on the Restrained Person must do the following:

- Ask if the Restrained Person is in possession of any of the prohibited items listed in (6), or has custody or control of any that they have not already turned in.
- Order the Restrained Person to immediately surrender to you all prohibited items
- Issue a receipt to the Restrained Person for all prohibited items that have been surrendered.
- Complete a proof of personal service and file it with the court. You may use form DV-200 for this purpose.
 Within one business day of service, submit the proof of service directly into the California Restraining and Protective Order System (CARPOS), including the serving officer's name and law enforcement agency.

Arrest Required if Order Is Violated

If an officer has probable cause to believe that the restrained person had notice of the order and has disobeyed the order, the officer must arrest the restrained person. (Penal Code sections 836(c)(1), 13701(b).) A violation of the order may be a violation of Penal Code section 166 or 273.6.

If the Protected Person Contacts the Restrained Person

Even if the protected person invites or consents to contact with the restrained person, the orders remain in effect and must be enforced. The protected person cannot be arrested for inviting or consenting to contact with the restrained person. The orders can be changed only by another court order. (Penal Code section 13710(b).)

Child Custody and Visitation

Child custody and visitation orders are listed on form DV-140 or another attached form. If the judge made these orders, look at items 10 and 11 of this order to see if the judge granted an exception for brief and peaceful contact with the person in 1 as needed to follow court-ordered visits. Contact by the person in 2 that is not brief and peaceful is a violation of this order. Forms DV-100 and DV-105 are not orders. Do not enforce them.

This is a Court Order.

DECLARATION ATTACHMENT TO REQUEST FOR RESTRAINING ORDER Additional House

I, Hanna Mars, responding party herein, testify truthfully to the facts stated herein.

Recent Abuse

- 1. I initially obtained a DVRO against Petitioner in September of 2022 in case number DV003144. I ask the court to take judicial notice of the TRO filed on September 14, 2023 and again on November 7, 2022. In retaliation, Petitioner filed a false restraining order against me alleging that I had kidnapped our son and would kidnap him again. In order to reduce costs and fees, I stipulated to a peaceful contact order that was filed on January 26, 2023. I again, request that the court take judicial notice of the stipulation filed on January 26, 2023. I was hoping that if tensions decreased in the case that Kostiantyn might start acting less erratic. Unfortunately that has not been the case.
- 2. A few months after the stipulation was entered, Petitioner began representing himself and he has gotten more delusional and erratic. I am very afraid of Petitioner and his behavior as I don't know what he might do, but he appears to be becoming frantic and desperate. Since April, Petitioner has filed at least two to three motions per month, all frivolous and denied, including eight attempts to recuse Judge Flint from our case, two attempts to disqualify my attorney, and two attempts to hold me in contempt. Petitioner has been allowed to continue to psychologically and emotionally abuse me using the legal system with all of his frivolous filing which are costing me a great deal of money.
- 3. Petitioner was emotionally and psychologically abusive throughout our marriage and culminated in August of 2022 with him threatening me with my immigration status and having me deported if I did not leave our home and give him full custody of our young son. Petitionar's behavior has gradually gotten worse and more delusional and erratic since that time, including in his supervised visits. Petitioner has never acted appropriately at his professionally supervised visits and tells our son to "call him" to "contact him to play games" or to "text him whenever he likes." He has texted our son and told him that I have kidnapped him and will take him to Ukraine and kill him, that I killed his "granny" and that he needs to tell me that he (Maksym) "wants to be free." The first several professional supervisors quit as Petitioner would not listen to them and follow their rules. He now has two new supervisors.
- 4. A few months ago, Petitioner contacted a private investigator in order to obtain my new residential address in Sunnyvale. He refuses to tell me where he is living. He showed up several times in the fall, leaving things on my carport. I think he did this just to let me know that he knew where I lived in order to scare me. After supervised visits, he has tried to follow me home when I was leaving the visit with Maksym. I would then need to pull off somewhere before coming home in the attempt to lose him. How many other times he has followed me or shown up at my house, I don't know, but I am scared.
- 5. On November 23rd and again on November 24th of this year, Petitioner showed up at my doorstep. Our stipulated order provides in relevant part that, "each Party shall stay away from the

- 8. Maksym got more and more upset and then he tried bargaining with his father, "If you leave, then I'll promise to call." Petitioner, "how are you going to call without a sim card? She will not allow you to call." After 15-30 minutes, Petitioner finally left. I again called the police and was again told that I need to go to court and obtain a CLETS restraining order or the police can't help me. Office Luttrell gave me his card. Exhibit "C." I am very scared of Petitioner and his behavior and I thoroughly expect without a restraining order, Petitioner will continue to show up at my house scaring Maksym and me. Petitioner does only what he wants to do and lives in his own world. He is in violation of many court orders, so I need a CLETs restraining order so that I can protect myself and Maksym.
- 9. I have no idea where Petitioner is living and he refuses to tell me. I have no way to personally serve Petitioner. Petitioner does however, receive mail at his P.O. Box and does respond to emails at the email address used by him with the court and my attorney. I am asking the court to allow me to serve Petitioner via email or U.S. Mail as I cannot otherwise locate him to serve him. I know he will know that I applied for a restraining order as he continually checks the court's website for documents that have been filed, even prior to service. I am scared of Petitioner as he gets more and more out of control.

Past History of Domestic Violence

- 10. I sought and was granted a domestic violence restraining order against my husband Kostiantyn Mars on September 14, 2022 protecting both myself and our then six year old son, Maksym. My requests for protection and for sole custody were granted by the court in case number DV003144. Petitioner, who violated my restraining order almost immediately, upon being served by sending a message to a mutual friend threatening me and "whoever helped me with this" and contacting me on my cell phone, went to court and filed for a dissolution of marriage, his own restraining order requesting custody of our son, which was denied, and then filed a peremptory challenge to the assigned judge. Petitioner's request for a restraining order against me is purely retaliatory in nature and the facts as stated by Petitioner are completely fabricated and built upon my claims against him.
- 11. When Maksym turned about age one, my husband started to become abusive toward and controlling of me. Prior to that time, Petitioner was simply cold. For the short periods of time he was at home, he constantly disparaged me telling me I was a bad wife, and I didn't know how to keep the house in order. He would go around the home and tell me that I failed to put items back in their proper place. All the time he would disparage me and tell me that I was stupid, dumb, that I was worth nothing. He also started calling me a bitch when yelling at me. This behavior continued after we moved to the United States in May of 2019. Most of this disparagement and yelling on the part of Petitioner occurred in front of our son and Petitioner had, and still has, not him." On multiple occasions Kostiantyn would grab Maksym so he couldn't get away from him, pull down his pants and underwear and smack him on his bottom hard three to five times leaving red marks which would last for at least one hour. I was afraid of Kostiantyn, but after months of this behavior, I would try to talk to Maksym and remove him from the situation before it escalated. Maksym has been a witness over and over again to Petitioner's poor and disparaging treatment of me. Prior to my removing Maksym from the situation when things escalated with Petitioner, when I tried to intervene, Kostiantyn would yell at me, grab my hand and tell me that "I was preventing him from raising his son and it was necessary for Maksym or he otherwise wouldn't understand and he would "behave like a girl." Kostiantyn would then threaten to take Maksym away from me telling me that "I am a softie with him." I was afraid of Kostiantyn so I didn't call the police. I just kept trying to intervene and protect my son and myself. If I told Kostiantyn that I would call the police, he would tell me, "what do you think you will say to the police? You don't speak the language." He would then continue to threaten that he would take Maksym from me.

- 16. Around mid-July of this year, Petitioner went through the necessary end process to obtain his and Maksym's green cards. Although we filled out paperwork, I didn't know if Petitioner had filed the documents necessary for my green card as I still hadn't received my green card after Petitioner and Maksym received theirs. In fact, during the entire process, I was kept in the dark and didn't even now the number of our case. In September, Petitioner called the immigration attorney to tell him that we were getting divorce hoping that he could have me deported. I did receive my green card however and this upsets Petitioner's plans to have me deported to Ukraine and for him to have full custody of our son.
- 17. As part of the process of obtaining Maksym' green card, Maksym needed to be vaccinated. Petitioner lied to the pharmacist about the date of Maksym's first vaccine. I told the pharmacist it has been only four months and he refused to give Maksym the vaccine that day. Kostinantyn was angry that I told the pharmacist the truth and threatened me and told me "If you screw up the green card process for our son, I will make you return to Ukraine and you will never see Maksymym again." After we left the CVS pharmacy, Kostiantyn again put me down in front of Maksym, yelling at me and threatening me saying, "You are a stupid fool idiot, because of you Maksym may not get a green card, why are you getting involved in this with your stupid words?. "You are nobody without me and it depends on me whether you stay in America or not." Kostiantyn then said to Maksym that I was a bad mother and I did not love him. Maksym began to cry and I asked Kostiantyn not to yell and say these things to our child. Kostiantyn just yelled at me and continued to scream and humiliate me in front of our son. Petitioner again tries to turn the true facts around and accuses me of trying to prevent Maksym from getting his green card and accusing me of verbal abuse and of wanting to return to the Ukraine.
- 18. In August and September, Kostiantyn just started doing things to make my caring for Maksym difficult or trying to remove me out of his and Maksym's life. Petitioner began by taking Maksym's car seat from me and telling me that he, Petitioner, would take Maksym everywhere. Petitioner then took and hid all of Maksym's legal documents, including his passport, green card, and vaccination card. The court ordered in July for Petitioner to submit those documents to my attorney to hold, by Petitioner refuses to turn over the document in violation of the court's order.

- 19. On September 1, 2022, Petitioner forced me under duress and coercion to sign a document removing me from the lease for our apartment. (See Exhibit "G" lease amendment.) He told me that if I didn't sign this lease amendment, he would take our son from me and cancel my green card process. I was very scared and so I signed the lease amendment. Petitioner had started telling me for about one month prior to this that I needed to find my own apartment, and threatening me that I should not add our son's name to any lease I enter into because "our son will live with only him." He gave until Friday, September 16, 2022 to leave our apartment.
- 20. On September 4, 2022, Kostiantyn disparaged me in front of our son again. He told our son that "your mom keeps you starving and she is not a good mother." Our son was upset and told his father that I had just fed him. Kostiantyn did not stop and kept telling our son bad things about me. Petitioner's inability to control his disparagement of me is clear in that even while being professionally supervised, he had to be reprimanded numerous times by the professional supervisors for disparaging me and making Maksym feel uncomfortable. On September 9, 2022, Kostiantyn told me to "voluntarily" sign a lease where I would exclude our son from the lease" as "our son cannot live with me." Kostiantyn threatened me, "if you include our son on the lease, I will take away your parental rights and stop your green card process."
- 21. On September 13, 2022, Kostiantyn called my parents and told my father, "if she doesn't sign a lease agreement with the apartment for herself before September 16, 2022 and leave, I will do everything to send her to Ukraine and she will never see our son. Maksym should not be included in her apartment. You will never see your grandchild ever again." Over the past year with Petitioner's behavior and what he says to our son, Maksym has been very concerned and often cries. Maksym will take my hand and say, "Mom, I want you to always be there, Dad says that you will go to a psychiatric hospital." He continues to try to convince Maksym that I am a bad mother and do not care for him. This is so detrimental to Maksym. It is now over one year later, and this behavior on Petitioner's part continues. I believe that there is something seriously wrong with his mental health.
- 22. It is now clear to me that Petitioner is unable to control his abusive behavior toward me and our son. I tried to make things easier in January by dismissing the first restraining order, but clearly things have only gotten worse as far as Petitioner's mental health. I and Maksym are scared of Petitioner and what he may do. I request that this Court please grant my request for a CLETS restraining order.

the slightest idea of how harmful this is to our son.

- 12. On December 25, 2019 Petitioner, I and our son all traveled to the Ukraine for the holidays. Petitioner, in control of our finances, purchased the tickets and all subsequent changes to these tickets. Petitioner was to stay for only two weeks while Masksym and I were scheduled to return on February 1, 2020. All flights back to the U.S. were out of Poland. Due to the delay caused by the lack of the document allowing me to travel alone with Maksym, Petitioner, was required to reschedule our flight back to the U.S. I was only given access to one debit/credit card with a very limited limit. Therefore, I was never in the financial position to pay for flight tickets. It was Petitioner himself who re-scheduled my and Maksym's flight back to the U.S. for March 30, 2020! When I asked him why so far out, he texted me that he liked the number because "it was the same backwards as forward." I did not want to continue to stay that long, but as only Petitioner could obtain the tickets, March 30, 2020 is what he chose. Then on or about March 20, 2020, the U.S. closed it's borders to Europe due to the coronavirus. Additionally, Poland, the country we were traveling out of, shut down all international flights and they were not re-instated until approximately the end of June 2020. I didn't know if Petitioner was delusional at that time and could not remember why we were stalled in Europe, or whether he has no qualms about lying under oath. However, it is clear that at no time was my intent to "kidnap" Maksym" as Petitioner has been alleging now for over one year.
- 13. After our return from Europe, we moved to the Bay Area from Los Angeles in October of 2020. Things remained about the same with Kostiantyn disparaging me and calling me names; however, the frequency with which it occurred increased. We had a one bedroom apartment. Kostiantyn took over the one bedroom and used it as his office to work from home. Maksym and I slept in the living room. Later, Kostiantyn's "granny" would sleep in the kitchen. We rarely saw Kostiantyn except for dinner and sometimes on weekends. When he was home, however, Petitioner was abusive and always yelling at and disparaging me, in front of our young son Maksym.
- 14. Things really escalated in January of 2022 and again in June of 2022 when Kostiantyn brought his 94 year old grandmother over from the Ukraine. When granny arrived, I tried to help with her care, but Petitioner would yell at me and tell me to leave her alone. He had this elderly frail woman living in our kitchen. When Petitioner was kicked out of our home with my restraining order, he was told to leave "granny" with me and I would care for her. Petitioner chose to move his elderly grandmother who was already in frail health and now blames me for her death.
- 15. Starting in January of 2022, Petitioner began threatening me with regard to our son and my immigration status. Petitioner also started physically and emotionally injuring our son Maksym, then age six. From January until September when I began to intervene and try to keep Maksym away from his father, Kostiantyn would spank Maksym telling me and Maksym that "it educates other Party, including: the homes of each Party, the jobs, vehicles, Both shall avoid approaching each other's home, vehicles," This stipulation also provides that,"the parties shall refer to the other parent with respect at all times that the children are within hearing distance"

- 6. On the 23rd, Petitioner showed up at my door at 8:05 a.m., and Maksym answered. He tried to give Maksym, our son, gifts and a card where all his erratic thoughts were written. Petitioner stated to Maksym the following: "Read this out loud. In the meantime, mom is recording us on video," "Mom don't allow me to communicate with you,", "Mom will record us on video but don't be afraid." Petitioner stated all this while he had a camera mounted to his forehead and was taking videos of his own. When Petitioner asked me "can I give Max a card?" I answered positively because I was afraid that if I didn't allow him, his reaction might be aggressive because I don't know what's going on in his head. He tried to get Maksym to read the handmade card, but when Maksym heard him start to talk about me, he yelled out indicating for his father to stop and stated he wouldn't read it. So Petitioner stated he would read the card to Maksym. Exhibit "A." The content of the card is completely delusional and inappropriate for a young child including again, that I kidnapped Maksym and want to kill him, that I killed "granny," that I am "evil and wrong," and that Kostiantyn and Maskym "will kick my ass just as he kicked the ass of the bribed judge" (referring to the Honorable Andrea Flint). Maksym tried several times to close our front door, but Petitioner would not leave. When Petitioner finally left my front porch a couple of hours later, the police arrived and told me that it has been reported that I had abducted Maksym and I don't allow him to see his father. Petitioner has sent the police out to my house in the past also. They asked a couple of questions of Maksym. Then I showed them the letter Petitioner had written for our son and my video, of what had happened and they said that I should go to court. They also said that they can't go and arrest Petitioner because there is no restraining order. I showed them our peaceful agreement, they said that I should go to court and obtain a CLETS order so then it will appear in the police system. The police officer gave me his card, Exhibit "B" and left.
- 7. On November 24th, Petitioner again appeared at my front door at approximately 1:30 p.m again with a camera mounted to his head. I answered and saw Petitioner there on my porch. He asked to see Maksym and was yelling at me. I told Petitioner he was outside playing with his friends. At that moment, Petitioner heard Maksym come around the corner talking with his friend. Petitioner started running up to Maksym and calling him. Maksym saw highand told him no! I kept asking nicely over and over for Petitioner to leave. He would not leave. He continued to stand there in the street in front of my house talking to me and Maksym with Maksym's friend there. Petitioner kept saying to Maksym that "I tried to kill Maksym," "Did Maksym want to be taken back to Ukraine," "Did Maksym how that I killed granny and would kill him," "that I destroyed his (Petitioner's) life," "Did he (Maksym) want to live without a father?" And "In two months, he (Petitioner) would put me in jail." Throughout all of this disparaging and inappropriate talk from Petitioner, I was asking Petitioner to please leave. Then Maksym started yelling at his father to leave, again without success. Petitioner continued, "do you want to be without a father?" "She (me) illegally kicked me out of the house," "We do not listen to Mom," and "We can fight her Maksym."

Conflicting Orders-Priorities for Enforcement

If more than one restraining order has been issued protecting the protected person from the restrained person, the orders must be enforced in the following priority (see Penal Code section 136.2 and Family Code sections 6383(h)(2), 6405(b)):

- 1. Emergency Protective Order (EPO): If one of the orders is an Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-001), provisions (e.g., stay away order) that are more restrictive than in the other restraining/protective orders must be enforced. Provisions of another order that do not conflict with the EPO must be enforced.
- 2. No-Contact Order: If a restraining/protective order includes a no-contact order, the no-contact order must be enforced. Item (10) is an example of a no-contact order.
- 3. Criminal Protective Order (CPO): If none of the orders include an EPO or a no-contact order, the most recent CPO must be enforced. (Family Code sections 6383(h)(2) and 6405(b).) Additionally, a CPO issued in a criminal case involving charges of domestic violence, Penal Code sections 261, 261.5, or former 262, or charges requiring sex offender registration must be enforced over any civil court order. (Penal Code section 136.2(e)(2).) All provisions in the civil court order that do not conflict with the CPO must be enforced.
- 4. Civil Restraining Orders: If there is more than one civil restraining order (e.g., domestic violence, juvenile, elder abuse, civil harassment), then the order that was issued last must be enforced. Provisions that do not conflict with the most recent civil restraining order must be enforced.

Temporary Restraining Order

(Domestic Violence Prevention)

DV-110. Page 9 of 9

Case Number: 22FL003144

Certificate of Compliance With VAWA

This temporary protective order meets all "full faith and credit" requirements of the Violence Against Women Act, 18 U.S.C. section 2265 (1994) (VAWA), upon notice of the restrained person. This court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter; the restrained person has been or will be afforded notice and a timely opportunity to be heard as provided by the laws of this jurisdiction. This order is valid and entitled to enforcement in each jurisdiction throughout the 50 states of the United States, the District of Columbia, all tribal lands, and all U.S. territories, commonwealths, and possessions and shall be enforced as if it were an order of that jurisdiction.

Warnings and Notices to the Restrained Person in 3

Your Address to Receive Court Orders

If the judge makes a restraining order at the hearing (court date), which has the same orders as in this Temporary Restraining Order, you will get a copy of that order by mail at your last known address, which is written in ② on page 1. If your address was not listed on this form or is incorrect, contact the court. If you did not attend your hearing and want to know if the judge granted a restraining order against you, contact the court.

Child Custody, Visitation, and Support

- Child custody and visitation: If you do not attend your hearing (court date), the judge can make custody and visitation orders for your children without hearing from you.
- Child support: The judge can order child support based on the income of both parents. The judge can also have that support taken directly from a parent's paycheck. Child support can be a lot of money, and usually you have to pay until the child is age 18. File and serve form FL-150, Income and Expense Declaration, or form FL-155, Financial Statement (Simplified), if you want the judge to have information about your finances. Otherwise, the court may make support orders without hearing from you.
- Spousal support: File and serve form FL-150, Income and Expense Declaration, so the judge will have information about your finances. Otherwise, the court may make support orders without hearing from you.

Firearms (Guns), Firearm Parts, and Ammunition

Under California law, you cannot have any firearms (guns), certain firearm parts, or ammunition. (Family Code sections 62.16 and 6389(a)). Ask the court for information on how to properly turn in, sell, or store these items in your city or county. You can also contact your local police department for instructions.

Temporary Restraining Order (CLETS—TRO) (Domestic Violence Prevention)

Case Number: 22FL003144

In addition to the hearing listed on form DV-109, item (3), you must attend the court hearing listed below to prove that you have properly turned in, sold, or stored all prohibited items (described in (6)) you still have or own, including any items listed in (6). If you do not attend the court hearing listed below, a judge may find that you have violated the restraining order and noting law enforcement and a prosecuting attorney of the violation.

8 Cannot Look for Protected People

You must not take any action to look for any person protected by this order, including their addresses or locations.

If checked, this order was not granted because the judge found good cause not to make the order.

- 9 Order to Not Abuse Not requested Denied until the hearing MGranted as follows:
 You must not do the following things to the person in 1 and any person listed in 3:
 - Harass, attack, strike, threaten, assault (sexually or otherwise), hit, follow, stalk, molest, destroy personal property, keep under surveillance, impersonate (on the internet, electronically, or otherwise), block movements, annoy by phone or other electronic means (including repeatedly contact), or disturb the peace.
 - "Disturb the peace" means to destroy someone's mental or emotional calm. This can be done directly or indirectly, such as through someone else. This can also be done in any way, such as by phone, over text, or online. Disturbing the peace includes coercive control.
 - "Coercive control" means a number of acts that unreasonably limit the free will and individual rights of any person protected by this restraining order. Examples include isolating them from friends, relatives, or other support; keeping them from food or basic needs; controlling or keeping track of them, including their movements, contacts, actions, money, or access to services; and making them do something by force, threat, or intimidation, including threats based on actual or suspected immigration status. Coercive control includes reproductive coercion meaning controlling someone's reproductive choices, such as using force, threat, or intimidation to pressure someone to be or not be pregnant, and to control or interfere with someone's contraception, birth control, pregnancy, or access to health information.

Minor

- a. X A Request to Keep Minor's Information Confidential (form DV-160) was made and granted (see form DV-165, Order on Request to Keep Minor's Information Confidential, served with this form.)
- b. If the request was granted, the information described on the order (form DV-16S, item (7)) must be kept CONFIDENTIAL. The disclosure or misuse of the information is punishable as a sanction, with a fine of up to $1,000 or other court penalties.
- 6 Service of Documents by the Person in 1

At least if the days before the hearing, someone age 18 or older—not you or anyone to be protected—must personally give (serve) a court file-stamped copy of this form (DV-109, Notice of Court Hearing) to the person in (2) along with a copy of all the forms indicated below:

- a. DV-100, Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order (file-stamped)
- b. DV-110, Temporary Restraining Order (file-stamped) if granted
- c. DV-120, Response to Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order (blank form)

Right to Cancel Hearing: Information for the Person in 1

- If item (4) a(2) or (6) a(3) is checked, the judge has denied some or all of the temporary orders you requested until the court hearing. The judge may make the orders you want after the court hearing. You can keep the hearing date, or you can cancel your request for orders so there is no court hearing.
- If you want to cancel the hearing, use form DV-112, Waiver of Hearing on Denied Request for Temporary Restraining Order. Fill it out and file it with the court as soon as possible. You may file a new request for orders, on the same or different facts, at a later time.
- If you cancel the hearing, do not serve the documents listed in item (6) on the other person.
- If you want to keep the hearing date, you must have all of the documents listed in item 6 served on the other person within the time listed in item 6.
- At the hearing, the judge will consider whether denial of any requested orders will jeopardize your safety and the safety of children for whom you are requesting custody or visitation.
- You must attend the hearing if you want the judge to make restraining orders or continue any orders already made. If you cancel the hearing or do not attend the hearing, any restraining orders made on form DV-110 will end on the date of the hearing.
